

Training for Activists and Organizers: A series of workshops at UNH

Learn to shift the political debate!

Come to...

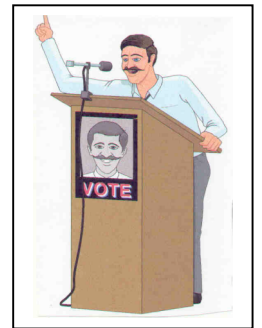

“Bird-dog” Training!

March 27, Tuesday, 7-9pm

At The Waysmeet Center (across from "C" parking lot), 15 Mill Rd, Durham NH

What is bird-dogging?

Bird-dogging refers to citizens who seek out the candidates, pin them down with specific questions or information, and retrieve their views.

NH's first-in-the-nation Presidential Primary provides a unique opportunity to shape public opinion by influencing presidential candidates and the national news media.

In so doing, we find out where candidates stand, shift the debate towards peace & justice and raise public & media awareness.

Refreshments provided.

All are welcome. Free to students, $5 for others.

Pre-registration not necessary but appreciated!

For more info contact Rachel at rga3@cisunix.unh.edu or Amy at amyla44@juno.com or 603-750-7506

Parking in "C" lot and downtown Durham

For more parking info & directions contact 862-1165 or waysmeet@comcast.net

Sponsored by The UNH Peace & Justice League, Third Wave,

The United Campus Ministry to UNH & Seacoast Peace Response