

Eyewitness Tehran

Reportback from the Iranian Civilian Diplomacy Initiative

Tuesday, April 12, 7pm
at Waysmeet, 15 Mill Rd, Durham NH

John Schuchardt was part of a Fellowship of Reconciliation peace delegation in November 2010. The delegation learned about the lives of ordinary Iranians, even as international tensions rise amidst new trade prohibitions (sanctions) and increased U.S./NATO/ Israeli military preparations for a possible attack.

John Schuchardt is co-director of the House of Peace in Ipswich founded in 1990. It has welcomed and cared for victims of war from many countries, most recently war-injured children from Iraq. John Schuchardt, an attorney and former marine officer, has been on peace missions to Viet Nam, Nicaragua, Israel, Palestine, Yugoslavia, and Iraq.

Free and open to the public.

Sponsored by UNH Peace and Justice League, Seacoast Peace Response, & NH Peace Action.

For more info: amyla44@juno.com or 603-664-2796 or see www.seacoastpeaceresponse.org.