TUESDAY APRIL 11
6:00 - 7:30 pm Public Viewing Hours
7:30 pm Interfaith Panel Discussion on The Possibility of Forgiveness
What do some of the world's great spiritual and religious traditions offer as far as language, history, ritual and vision in regard to forgiveness, reconciliation and hope in the face of violence and hatred. Leaders from Jewish, Buddhist, Ba'hi, Christian faiths will address timely questions. All are welcome.

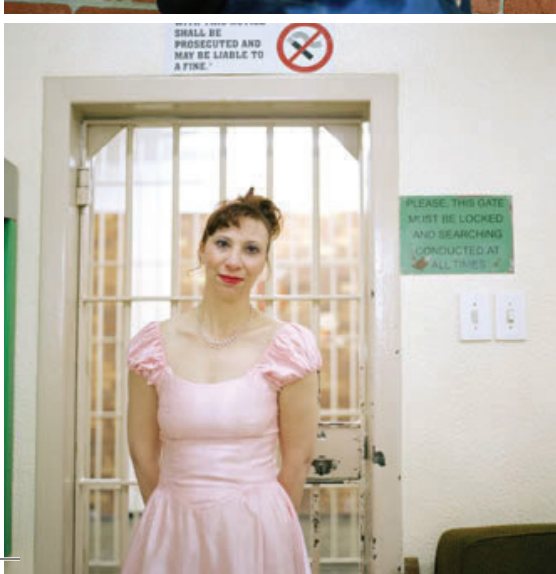

WEDNESDAY APRIL 12
1:00 - 4:00 pm Public Viewing Hours
4:00 pm Tears, Tenacity and Transformation
September 11 families share their stories and their journey. Through the voices and experiences of those who have suffered great loss, this program will provide the opportunity to explore the process that leads painfully toward healing.

THURSDAY APRIL 13
9:00 am - 12:00 pm Public Viewing
10:00 am - 12:00 pm Women and the Work of Reconciliation
This morning is an opportunity to talk with other women who have faced great loss and have pursued the path of peace and reconciliation. Video and discussion. All women welcome.

THURSDAY APRIL 13
4:00 - 7:00 pm Public Viewing
7:00 - 8:00 pm Maundy Thursday Service of Communion and Tenebra
Following viewing the exhibit worshippers are invited to participate in a service that commemorates the final hours of Jesus' life, through song, silence and ritual.

FRIDAY APRIL 14
12:00 - 1:00 pm Ecumenical Good Friday Service
This Good Friday service will incorporate the scenes and themes of the exhibit allowing viewers to reflect more fully upon the task of forgiveness in our time in light of the message of the cross and the promise of resurrection. Sponsored by area churches.

FRIDAY APRIL 14
4:00 - 7:30 pm Public Viewing Hours
7:30 pm Meditation on Forgiveness
Local pianist, Pameley Langelly will offer a free concert using meditation music. Interfaith readings on forgiveness and reconciliation will be included. A time of reflection, meditation, and renewal.

The Forgiveness Project is a young charitable organisation—with no political or religious affiliations—working at a local, national and international level to promote conflict resolution and restorative practices as alternatives to the endless cycles of conflict, violence and crime that are the hallmarks of our time.
