

Film Showing and Discussion of
"King of Hearts"

Friday March 30th, 7:00pm at the First Unitarian Universalist Society of Exeter, 12 Elm St, Exeter NH

Part comedy, part romance and part anti-war missive, come see this cult film from the 1960s!

During the latter part of World War I, Private Charles Plumpick is chosen to go into the French town of Marville and disconnect a bomb that the German army has planted. However, Charles is chased by some Germans and finds himself at the local insane asylum, where the inmates are convinced he is the "King of Hearts."

Will Charles be able to deactivate the bomb in time and save his newfound friends?

Free and open to the public.
