

Battlefield without Borders: Iraqis In Crisis

Featuring Longtime Peace Activist Kathy Kelly
& Poet David Smith-Ferri

October 26th, Friday

-5-6pm at the Portsmouth Peace Vigil in Market Sq.

-7:30pm presentation at South Church, 292 State St, Portsmouth

-After the presentation stay for a reception with booksigning & refreshments with our speakers & sponsors.

Kathy Kelly, co-founder of Voices in the Wilderness, now Voices for Creative Non-Violence, and poet David Smith-Ferri will report from their visit with Iraqi refugees in Jordan. Kathy will discuss consequences of war for Iraqis, Americans & the planet. David will read his poetry (www.battlefieldwithoutborders.org).

Free & open to the public. Donations requested for VCNV.

Sponsored by Seacoast Peace Response, South Church,
NH Peace Action & CodePink

For more info: 603-749-9159 or info@seacoastpeaceresponse.org or see www.seacoastpeaceresponse.org